YOB gatherings...

Setting the Foundations for the year

Monday 16th January 2012 – 7.30pm @ All Saints Centre, Weston

Start the New Year with an evening of prayer for our work and one another, and an opportunity to worship God who is central to it all. Worship led by Tim Buckley

FREE Basic youth worker training

Bath YFC are running basic youth worker training in early 2012. Whether you are employed and just want to reflect on the work you are doing or are a volunteer this training will help equip you in your youth ministry. The dates and details are as follows:

Monday 30th January – Responding to Challenging Behaviour

Monday 6th February – Values and priorities of youth work – why do we do what we do?

Monday 13th February – An introduction to Child Protection and Health and Safety

The training takes place from 7.30-9pm at Hay Hill Baptist Church. To book yourself or volunteers you have onto this please email james@bathyfc.co.uk to confirm the number of places you would like.

A good site for testimonies (thanks Clive Bennett). Check out www.iamsecond.com for all sorts of great testimonies from people. It is very nicely produced and could be great for short talks.

Would you like to freshen up your resources for youth groups you run?

We will be taking delivery of ten trial packs of Rock Solid (11-14s Unchurched/ Fringe young people), RS2 (11-14s church young people) and Mettle (15-18s) resources. These are tried and tested YFC resources and you are interested we are happy to give you FREE a trial pack. If you think you might be interested then check out <http://resources.yfc.co.uk/> for more information and then email admin@bathyfc.co.uk for your FREE pack.
